Men ought always to pray, and not to faint [become discouraged]. (Luke 18:1)

If our prayers are proper ones, we can be sure they will be answered. The Bible gives many instructions on how to pray. The one in this text suggests our prayers may require some time before they are answered. And the Lord's Prayer says, "Thy will be done," which points out that we must always seek God's will in our lives, rather than our own. Colossians 4:2
